

AMTRAK Passenger Compensation Agreement

The undersigned named parties agree to the following:

1. The named person below (“Passenger”) was a passenger on the Amtrak Cascades train #501 that derailed on or about December 18, 2017, near Dupont, Washington.

2. The train was being operated by the National Railroad Passenger Corporation, also known as Amtrak. Amtrak has offered to pay compensation and/or provide services to Passenger consisting of the following:

_____	$ _____
_____	$ _____
_____	$ _____
_____	$ _____

3. The parties agree that the services and/or payments above do not affect, negate, or affect in any way Passenger’s right to bring a claim against Amtrak or any other at-fault entity for damages caused by the derailment. Passenger’s acceptance of said services and/or payments shall not be construed as a release or satisfaction of Passenger’s claims for injuries and damages against Amtrak or any other at-fault entity.

4. This agreement shall not affect or impair Passenger’s right to retain his or her own legal representative at any time.

5. The Amtrak representative below has authority to execute this agreement on behalf of Amtrak, and to legally bind Amtrak to same.

6. The parties have executed two copies of this agreement, with each party receiving one copy containing original signatures.
